APPOINTMENT PACKAGE FOR K3 VISA APPLICANTS – (PACKET FOUR)

You have informed our office that you have all the documents needed in support of your nonimmigrant visa application. We have, therefore, scheduled you for an interview at our office. All members of your family applying for visas with you, irrespective of age, must appear in person with you for the interview. Each applicant, irrespective of age, requires a separate visa. If you cannot keep your visa appointment, please notify our office immediately. Please quote your BMB case number in any communications with our office.

The following documents should be presented at the visa interview for each applicant.

1. APPOINTMENT LETTER: attached.

2. APPLICATION FORMS: attached forms DS-156, Nonimmigrant Visa Application, for each applicant (two for each applicant). Separate forms should be completed for each applicant. When completing the form please include all names used by each applicant, including any names used in the past. In particular, married women must be sure to include their full name as used before marriage, after marriage, and any other aliases. Please use the exact spelling and name order indicated in the applicant's passport.

3. MEDICAL REPORT: see attached information. All applicants, regardless of age, must undergo a medical examination. The applicants should contact the panel facility DIRECTLY to make an appointment for the examination.

IMPORTANT: The results of the medical examination will be of great help during the applicant's stay in the United States. To help the panel physician make as thorough a report as possible applicants should discuss their medical history and current conditions, such as pregnancy, diabetes, hypertension, any other conditions as well as medications taken, with the panel physician. We strongly suggest that applicants take all their old medical records with them for the medical examination.

4. PASSPORT: Each applicant must have a valid passport. The passport must be valid for travel to the United States and must have at least six months validity beyond the issuance date of the visa. The passport should reflect the correct name and date of birth of the applicant. If the applicant's exact date of birth is known, an estimated date of birth (e.g. 01-Jun-1970) is not acceptable. The visa is issued in the name given in the applicant's passport. A female applicant does not compulsorily have to change her name to her married name. Those applicants whose passports are issued in their maiden names will have their visas issued in their maiden names. Applicants should bring all current and former/expired passports with them to the consulate for their interview.

5. BIRTH CERTIFICATE: Each applicant must submit an original and a clear photocopy of his/her birth certificate and any required secondary evidence (see below). The certificate should include the applicant's name, date & place of birth, the names of both parents, an annotation by the issuing office indicating that it is an extract from its official records, and the seal of the issuing office, i.e. the municipal authorities or the village authorities (gram panchayat or talati-cum-mantri). The certificate must be in the original, official language of the state in which you were born. If your birth was not recorded, please submit a "no record of birth registration" letter from the relevant municipality or village authorities along with secondary evidence (see below). If your birth record has been destroyed or the municipality or village authorities will not issue one, submit a letter from the municipality or village authorities stating so along with secondary evidence (see below). If your name is not mentioned in the birth certificate, submit the certificate along with secondary evidence (see below). If any details are missing in the birth certificate or if there is a discrepancy regarding your date of birth or name, submit the certificate along with secondary evidence (see below). If your birth was registered more than three years after you were born, you must submit the certificate along with a magistrate's order concerning the late registration. If any documents were issued in a local language, you must submit the document as well as a notarized English translation.

Examples of secondary evidence (which should also include your name, date and place of birth; names of both parents; and the seal of the issuing office): a baptismal certificate, an adoption decree, a school record, a notarized affidavit from a close relative (a parent, a close relative, a neighbor or friend who was present at the time of your birth) on the appropriate stamp paper which must be sworn before a First Class Magistrate. The person making this affidavit must state how he/she knows your family and how he/she knows the facts of your birth.

Applicants may inquire with our Immigrant Visa Unit regarding police certificates for these countries or look up the Reciprocity Tables at our website. (D) U.S. police certificates are not required for applicants who have lived in the U.S.A.

Note: The police certificates should be valid on the day the visa applicant is interviewed. We suggest that applicants obtain new police certificates if their current certificates are no longer valid.

The visa interview

The K3 is a nonimmigrant visa for the spouse of a U.S. citizen. The K4 is a nonimmigrant visa for the unmarried child, under 21 years of a K3 applicant.

All applicants are interviewed on the day of the interview. The consular officer fingerprints the applicants, takes the applicant's oath, reviews the documents and advises the applicant of the decision reached. Applicants who are refused visas are given a letter of refusal which explains the reason for the refusal and the action that needs to be taken in order for the visa to be issued. For those applicants who are issued visas, the visas are affixed inside each passport and the applicant is given a sealed envelope which should be handcarried, UNOPENED, to the United States and submitted to the immigration inspector at the U.S. port-of-entry.

We make every effort to complete the visa interview as soon as possible. However, it is possible that applicants may have to spend several hours at our office on the day of the interview.

No assurance can be given in advance that a visa will be issued. A consular officer can make that decision only after the visa application and documents are reviewed, and the applicant has been personally interviewed. Applicants are advised not to make travel arrangements, not to dispose of property, not to give up his/her job until the visa has been issued.

Validity of the K3 visa: the K3 visa is generally valid for a maximum period of ten years from the date of issuance; the K4 visa until the applicant's twenty-first birthday. You must travel and apply for admission to the United States within that period. The visa may not be transferred from one person to another, or used by any person other than the person to whom issued.

Procedures at the Port of Entry: Applicants should be aware that a visa does not guarantee entry to the United States. Legally, the visa specifies the period during which the bearer may apply at a port of entry to enter the United States. The Department of Homeland Security – Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Service office (DHS-BCIS), and not the consular officer, who authorizes the traveler admission to the United States. Applicants whose medical reports classify them as Class A or Class B tubercular need to present their x-rays to the officials at the port of entry and should therefore HAND CARRY the x-ray films to the United States.

We encourage applicants to e-mail inquiries to our office. Please mention your BMB case number in any correspondence with our office regarding your visa case. Our e-mail address is mumbaiiv@state.gov.

Any false statement or concealment of a material fact may result in your permanent exclusion from the United States. Please do not make any travel plans until the visa has been issued to you.
